Upton Dene

Everything you need with all the fantastic benefits of both city and country living.

Upton Dene has the glorious city of Chester right on your doorstep, just three miles from the city centre, a 15 minute drive or seven minute train journey. Chester, the capital of Cheshire, with its famed Roman city walls, renowned racecourse and the largest Roman amphitheatre Britain has to offer. As well as a 1000 year old Cathedral and of course the one and only 700 year 'Old Rows' galleries where shopping and dining are a must.

Our brand new three bedroom shared ownership homes are ideal for growing families, with a great choice of schools close to home. Upton-By-Chester High School is a five minute drive away and there are four state primary schools in the local area.
